

The choicest CUT

Wholesale and retail butcher in Sydney's northern suburbs

The bulk of its revenue comes from a large local clientele while its wholesale operation includes restaurants, sporting clubs, cafes, food retailers, and more.

Offering a traditional range of butcher products, the store has become known for its superior quality meat and service. It presents a fantastic opportunity for someone new to Australia to step into a well established operation with a flourishing client base ready to be built on.

Its premises located in a busy region of Sydney's northern suburbs include a large retail space and cool room facilities. The two storey building also features off street parking and ample office space, with the asking price including the business' immaculate, fully refrigerated van.

Living in Sydney is all about enjoying life to the full. You'll be close to pristine beaches and have Sydney's world class shopping, dining and entertainment hotspots at your doorstep. A visit to the Opera House and Bondi Beach is a must.

Thirty-five years in business means this butcher store comes with a secure local and wholesale clientele and a $1 million annual turnover.
