ENGINEERING SUPPLY SPECIALIST WITH A HISTORY DATING BACK TO 1933

Servicing a broad area of the New South Wales south coast, this well-established business has been supplying a vast range of quality engineering products for over seven decades.

Its unbeatable supply range has been a key component of the business' longevity, selling a broad array of quality products –

- Blocks
- Bolts and Nuts
- Castor Wheels
- Chain
- Couplings
- Drills
- Industrial Paint
- Off Road Equipment
- Panel Beating Equipment
- Spray Painting Equipment
- Webbing
- Winches
- Wire Rope and much more

As the only operation of its kind locally, combined with its extensive product range, the business is the go-to engineering supplier across a broad regional area.

THE CLIENT BASE, BUILT ACROSS ITS MANY YEARS OF OPERATION, INCLUDES:

- General public
- Garages
- Service Stations
- Builders
- Earthmoving Operators
- Local council
- Travellers and holidaymakers

Many have been clients for years with revenue coming into the business via cash sales and accounts. Located in a large regional town on the New South Wales south coast, the business' office and shopfront enjoy a premium position close to the CBD with a major shopping centre nearby.

USE YOUR ENGINEERING OR MECHANICAL BACKGROUND TO CONTINUE TAKING THE BUSINESS FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH.

Meanwhile, make the most of the superb local setting with beaches and National Parks all nearby. Further afield you'll be able to explore picturesque Shoalhaven and the Southern Highlands. Plenty of local sport, shopping, education and health facilities mean your new Australian lifestyle will want for nothing, while the town's relaxed country atmosphere shares the same friendly spirit that all of regional Australia is renowned for.
