

Well established Adelaide manufacturer and retailer ... your window of opportunity

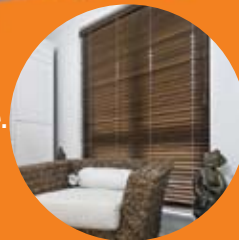

With 30+ years experience servicing the South Australian window furnishing industry, this Adelaide business is the ideal platform on which a new owner can build toward the future.

Manufacturing and retailing its own line of window furnishing products, the business has established large commercial and retail client bases generating consistent revenue and solid profits. Its commercial clientele centres on builders and architects operating throughout the state with the business enjoying an excellent reputation within the industry.

The retail clientele has been built around the business' two shopfronts; one located at the manufacturing facility 15 minutes from the centre of the city, the other located across town. It gives the business fantastic citywide coverage with its long history in the region ensuring it has a strong local brand and reputation.

Ideally run as a family operation, the business is also the chance for the new owner to experience Adelaide.

Adelaide is a mixture of laidback living and urban sophistication. It has a natural beauty that sweeps from its scenic coastline to the foothills of the Mount Lofty Ranges. The vibrant city has everything you could need including great schools, health facilities and transport infrastructure.
