

Awarding winning pie franchise in mining heartland

In its four-year history this country Western Australia business has attracted a large and loyal client base as well as winning multiple commercial awards including Winner of Best Franchise Business (2008 and 2009) and Winner of Retailer of the Month (October 2009).

Part of the Jesters franchise group, Australia's largest Pie franchise, the new owner will be stepping into an established business backed by a franchise with a proven formula for success. You'll enjoy excellent head office support, local and national marketing, tried and tested product range, excellent buying power, and the group's distinctive and instantly recognisable branding.

The store is located in a thriving mining town in country W.A. which acts as a central hub for the wider regional area. The cafe boasts an ideal position in the town's main shopping strip.

As well as the locals, shoppers, workers and schools, the cafe is also a popular choice with the many tourists who pass through the town.

Locally, you'll enjoy a laidback regional lifestyle in a friendly safe atmosphere. The strength of the local mining industry has ensured a strong local economy and with plenty of education, sporting, health, and entertainment facilities, the multicultural community will soon have you feeling at home.
