

Make the right business decision ... and sleep well

If you are being cautious about purchasing a new Australian business, then this simple effective Perth based bedding retailer will be a safe bet. This operation has a long history of success and as an ideal opportunity will be hard to beat.

Established for over ten years the business continues to attract a strong retail clientele. It sells a broad range of quality bedroom products, not just high quality mattresses, but furniture, for example, tall boys. Boasting an unbeatable network of suppliers offering discount rates has ensured the business maintains its generous margins and excellent income. Additional revenue also comes through post-sale services such as delivery.

A key pillar of the business' success has been its central location in a popular furniture and home improvement hub. The well-presented showroom and office are leased. To capitalise on strong demand a new owner could expand into 7-day a week trading.

Located on the majestic Swan River at first Perth may seem more holiday than home. Only minutes from some of Australia's best beaches with cafes, restaurants, entertainment, and sports galore – it's all at your doorstep with one of the most agreeable climates you'll find anywhere in the world.

As part of this investment, you'll also have a chance to savour the Perth lifestyle.
